By parties, who, probably having a few SECOND-HAND Rockford movements, secured now and then by a trade, make pretensions to handling them regularly, but read the following from a special notice we have from ROCKFORD WATCH COMPANY.

OFFICE OF ROCKFORD WATCH CO., }
ROCKFORD, ILL. }

"For the information of the Public:
Our goods are not jobbed. They are sold ONLY FROM THE FACTORY, and exclusively to retail dealers.

Sales of movements by one dealer to another are not allowed, such sales being inconsistent with the plan of protecting the trade, adopted by this Company; nor is any dealer handling our goods permitted to give prices of same to other dealers.

In a town no larger in population than yours, when a responsible and leading dealer is satisfied with the goods, and will make them his specialty, we give him, on his request, the sale in the locality designated.

ROCKFORD WATCH CO.

As will be seen by the following certificate we are the ROCKFORD WATCH CO'S regular Agents for this place. We handle a full line of their Goods, at prices that will compare favorably with those of other makers, and respectfully solicit an inspection and comparison of the same from all intending purchasers.

Yours,

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1883.

Lumber is solidly looking up.

Laborers for the woods are abundant.

Deer carcasses in abundance now, but the law says don't shoot.

Thompson Smith is indisposed from cold.

Mr. McVicker and lady, of Alpena are visiting W. H. Daniels.

W. A. Sumner returned from a business trip to Detroit Saturday.

Ike De Gowin has made improvements, looking to winter comfort.

Frank Magoffin and lady arrived from Ann Arbor Thursday night.

The "little clerk" at Ike De Gowin's thinks the telephone should not joke.

John McGinn says the work on the bank building will proceed until enclosed.

Wages in the woods from $14 to $18, and $20 to those who remain until the season ends.

The bank building still climbs and shows it is managed by a man that is hard to beat.

If persons were to go by the time of some railroads they would be very regular in being behind.

In God we trust, all others cash, is the motto of the Boyne Statesman. It wouldn't take in Cheboygan.

John Reid, Geo. Fax and Will Rindskopf were committee on reception at the Fireman's ball, and they honored their position.

Neighbors took possession of the house of the pastor of the Independent Church, last Saturday evening, and filled it brim full of music and pleasure.

Dr. T. A. Perrin was telegraphed for on Wednesday to go to Indian River and see a man that was hurt at Gee's camp, and could not go.

The M. E. church in high feather. In the rear of the pulpit a chancel is to be built, which will be a great improvement and add to the seating capacity of the church.

Navigation at the locks is closed. The old timbers of the lock are to be taken away and replaced with new timbers, with the end toward the water instead of the side as heretofore.

Yesterday week, at Otsego lake, a log rolled on a homesteader named McBride, catching him across the hips. His injuries will probably prove fatal. Dr. Gerow was called in council with Dr. Beath on Wednesday.

H. M. Hempstead and family, started this morning for Stanton, where he takes charge of a store. They spend Sunday in Bay City and proceed Monday to their future home. Mr. Hempstead is a true man full of energy and capacity.

There are 300 kegs of Detroit beer on the dock waiting shipment to the Soc, about which there has possibly been a mistake. The beer will go into winter quarters here and await the opening of navigation. Jas. Moloney boards the fellows.

Thanksgiving was generally observed. The fashion seemed to be for families and friends to feast themselves materially and socially. Union services were held in the Congregational church, Rev. Leith preaching the sermon, Rev. Clark and Hartley took part.

D. N. McLeod, the happy and energetic proprietor of the Benton House, with his usual generosity and love of sociability, invited a large party of friends to share his hospitality on Thanksgiving day. The dinner was elegant, and served in a manner to do credit to the excellent reputation which this house enjoys with the traveling public.

There is talk in certain quarters here of organizing an Independent church, similar to the one now in charge of the Rev. Mr. Thompson at Cheboygan. Just what that is we have not learned, but suppose it to be one of the branches of the great religious tree.—Manistiquio Pioneer.

You can rest assured, Major, that if founded exclusively on the Gospel, it is "one of the branches of the great religious tree," and with other things equal will be the most vigorous branch, accomplishing the greatest good for greatest number. The Independent Church here has not had a word of unpleasantness or discouragement, and never was so strong as now.

The ice in Mud lake on Thursday was 5 inches.

D. Lennehan's new residence is nearly finished.

The smoke of the sawdust ascendeth day and night.

Geo. Wharton took a trip to Black River yesterday.

Those who ride over the frozen cut up roads get the grand bounce.

There is less preparation for lumbering this season than heretofore, and the laborers suffer.

For once we feasted on turkey and everything good, but, as the Democrats say, let by-gones be by-gones.

James Reed, agent for the Prentiss Lumber company, of Alpena, well known in Cheboygan, spent yesterday in town.

T. M. Knapp, of Racine, was in town Monday, feeling quite well over the release of his fine schooner, Jay-Eye-See.

With low wages, diminished operations in lumber, those who are in it will do well unless struck with some unforeseen cyclone.

Henry J. Miner killed a deer near Mullett lake last Saturday, and we are indebted to him for a very generous piece of the same.

The poor man who is wise gets two or three barrels of flour, enough fuel and makes as much provision as he can to carry him through winter.

Cheboygan is looking up. Gerow's block has above the crest a handsome weather vane, that will not be vane to those who don't know which way the wind blows.

The gap between the bank building and Post & Van Arsdale's looks as large and open as a Reform Governor reaching for a little red book, and should be filled with a fine brick block, and it will.

Mrs. C. W. Farr left Wednesday morning for Indianapolis, Ind., for a four weeks' vacation, making a short stay at Jackson. Her faithful management of the telephone exchange has earned her a rest.

A man was carrying a pup home on Thanksgiving day, when a man who voted for Begole, asked what kind of a turkey it was, and he said he was a bulldogging gobbler, of the sausage breed, but that he was not traveling as turkey then, but simply as a shipper.

A Chicago dude was where the Cheboygan girl didn't want him, and said: I admire your charming complexion, it has such an exquisite tint." And she fired out, "That's more than I do yours, you are red as a beet." Confusedly he asked "what kind of a beet, sugar or—" and like lightning she flashed, "a dead beet, of course," and left the fool.

A butcher has a building in which he stows pelts. In the door is a sizable knot hole, through which he protruded a calf's tail. A Reformer through whose muddled brain the great difference between Begole as a Governor and Begole as a shipper, was worming itself, saw the immature beef narrative dangling outside, exclaimed in wonder: "How in h—l did that calf get though that hole?"

Rev. Chas. Otto the faithful energetic Lutheran Minister arrived Thursday night from Nebraska where for about six months he has labored as a missionary, with success. Mr. Otto looks well and we are glad to welcome him back. There are many Germans in and adjacent to Cheboygan, and they are among our best citizens, industrious, honest and intelligent. Mr. Otto preaches at the Lutheran church to-morrow at 10 a. m.

The ladies of the Independent Union are as noble and faithful a band of workers as were ever banded together for good. They dwell in peace with themselves and all the race. Everything they undertake is a success. The Thanksgiving supper was in their usual first-class style and gave satisfaction and handsome returns for which the ladies desire through the Tribune to express their thanks to all who in any wise aided.

An Irishman inquired at Dave Moloney's last Saturday the price of grapes and was told they were 25 cents a pound. He was astonished. He was told they were California grapes and were the best and most perfect being packed in cork. "Faith and Shure," says Pat, "how the devil could they be coming from California if they were packed in Cork?" and he left feeling he had fallen among the wicked English who hate the Irish and have no regard for the truth.

Low prices, good work at the TRIBUNE job rooms.

1883 was one of the marked in terrible sufferings.

In 1884 the girls can offer or reject any proposal.

Sheriff Harrington is the joyous father of a little girl.

The "False" Prophet is on the move in the conquering business.

The new constitution of Wyoming is for female as well as male voters.

Good stock, good work and low prices at the TRIBUNE job rooms.

The swamps are frozen and the foundation for guns and rods excellent.

She complained that he was untrue, and he said he was not, something sounded, and echo had nothing to say.

The School Board, at its meeting today, decided to give an intermission of one hour and a half at noon, and to put a stove in the hall.

The Presque Isle County Advance has three editorials, the first on feeding cows, next Aylesbury duck, and winds up with the best goose. Fred evidently discloses a taste for what's choice in this life.

The Fountain Hose Co. No. 3, organized the first Tuesday of Nov '82, with seven or eight members. The limit is twenty and is now full. The company is fully equipped and in splendid fighting condition. Officers were elected on the 8th inst., as follows: Geo. Wharton, President; Will Allair, Secretary; John Reid, Treasurer; L. C. Veeder, Foreman; A. G. Boggs, first assistant foreman; S. O. Penry, second assistant foreman; Geo. Fax, hydrant man.

"No more inquiries about my hair if you please," she said. "Well I was only thinking it grows fast," was the reply.
